

Mission Pledge

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S ANNUAL FUND

So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time,
if we do not give up.
So then, whenever we have an opportunity,
let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.

—Galatians 6:9–10

2018 commemorates PW's 30th anniversary after reunion. To celebrate, let us continue to "work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith." Please give generously to support our shared PW ministry.

PW's Mission Pledge: And We Will

Do you know of the PW heritage placemats? When these generously-sized placemats (made available for PW's 2009 Churchwide Gathering) are placed side-by-side, they showcase Presbyterian women's heritage from 1640 through 2009. To put it mildly, there's a lot to highlight. For example, the first panel notes that, in 1815, "The General Assembly asked the women to provide scholarships for needy students at Princeton Seminary, and they did."

"And they did." How amazing; even though circumstances in the larger world and church wouldn't always allow women of faith full access or say-so, they found a way. The timeline hints at some of their extraordinary work. For example, in 1805, Sarah Farquhar Loveless "became the first American Presbyterian woman to participate [in mission] when she went to India with her British missionary husband. In 1816 she established a school for girls."

In 1883, Lucy Craft Laney "established a school for African American children in Augusta, Georgia." In 1894, "Maria Fearing established the Pantops School for Girls in the Congo." And although the journey to full participation in the leadership of the church (as deacons, elders, ministers of Word and Sacrament, and commissioners to the General Assembly) was difficult and lengthy, Presbyterian women resolutely trod forward, step by sometimes-painful step.

It's also noteworthy that many ministries established by Presbyterian women are now mainstays in the wider church. These include the Presbyterian Hunger Program (and Cents-ability), the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program and the Mission Yearbook for Prayer & Study.

We do not stand (or work) alone. As Presbyterian Women at work today, let's consider that we are in an intergenerational conversation, if you will, with one another and with those who have "run with perseverance the race" (Heb. 12:1b) before us and after us.

This link—to one another, today, yesterday and next year—can be perhaps best appreciated through PW's two major grant programs, the Thank and Birthday Offerings. Since 1988, the Thank Offering has granted more than $25 million and the Birthday Offering, more than $20 million, expanding mission around the world.

The ministry of Presbyterian Women endures and continues to find ways to support the denomination and, in turn, the world. Consider PW's commitment to building "an inclusive, caring community of women" (per the PW Purpose), lived out by offering the first antiracism trainings in the PC(USA). Antiracism training is now being implemented by the whole church.

A strong Presbyterian Women begins with each Presbyterian woman. Whether one resides in Cedar Rapids or Columbus, Sarasota or Seattle, Rocky Mount or Mount Vernon, Bentonville or Boise, each one of us is called to contribute to PW's ministry.

Your gift to the Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund, makes Presbyterian Women possible. The reason is simple and profound: PW and the church depend on a healthy, purposeful Presbyterian Women. Your gift ensures that PW—a living, vibrant, prophetic organization—will continue to serve women well into the future. Let us honor our foremothers in faith and care for our great-great-granddaughters by supporting and maintaining Presbyterian Women. Let us say "And we will!"

Thank you to Magdalena García and Jieun Han for donating their time and talent in translating the moderator's letter (page 1) into Spanish and Korean, respectively.

A Letter from Your 2015–2018 PW Churchwide Moderator

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Perhaps you are a farmer, a botanist, a gardener or spent youthful summers on your grandmother's farm. If so, you no doubt have stories about the miraculous transformation of barrenness into growth. Planting that one suitable seed at just the right time in prepared soil is the first step to ensuring that your vision—in this case, an acre of wheat or soybeans or corn—comes to pass. Without a plan and careful tending, a field would yield a hodgepodge of whatever plant took root, weed and edible alike.

As Presbyterian Women—farmers, gardeners and houseplant hobbyists—we intuitively understand the importance of careful, consistent planning, planting, tending and reaping in every ministry and project we are called to do. That, of course, includes our PW ministry! In 2018, we celebrate 30 years together as Presbyterian Women. Let us look toward harvest time with full hearts and busy hands as we work (and play) together in support of our PW ministry, now and into the future. Our careful, thoughtful, tireless and prayerful tending of our PW ministry will yield a world envisioned in our PW Purpose.

I ask that you prayerfully reflect on the importance of Presbyterian Women—in your life and in the world. Please give, participate and invite others to do the same. Your support of Presbyterian Women matters. Your gifts to the Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund, ensure that PW will continue to “work for the good of all” for another 30 years.

그리스도 안에서 친애하는 자매들에게,

아마도 당신은 농부, 식물학자, 정원사이거나 유년시절 할머니의 농장에서 여름을 보냈을 것입니다. 그렇다면 척박한 땅에서 생명이 자라나는 기적적인 변화에 대한 이야기를 틀림없이 많이 알고 있을 것입니다. 준비된 토양에다 적절한 시기에 적절한 씨앗을 심는 것은 여러분의 비전 (이 경우에는 1 에이커의 밀이나 콩 또는 옥수수)이 실제로 일어나도록 하는 첫 걸음입니다. 계획과 신중한 보살핌이 없다면, 밭에 어떤 식물을 심었든 뿌리, 잡초 및 식용 작물이 뒤죽박죽 섞여 자라게 될 것입니다.

농부, 정원사 및 화초 애호가 같은 장로교 여성은 우리가 부름받은 모든 사역과 프로젝트에서 신중하고 일관되게 계획하고, 심고, 돌보고 거두는 것의 중요성을 직관적으로 이해합니다. 물론 그것은 PW의 사역을 포함합니다! 2018년, 우리는 장로교 여성으로서 함께 30년을 축하합니다. 우리가 현재와 미래의 PW사역을 지원하기 위해 함께 일하고 (함께 노는) 동안, 온 마음과 바쁜 손놀림으로 수확 시간을 생각해 봅시다. 신중하고, 사려 깊고, 지칠 줄 모르고, 기도하는 마음으로 돌보는 우리의 PW사역이 PW 목적에서 구상된 세상을 일구어낼 것입니다.

저는 여러분이 여러분 삶과 세상에서 의미하는 장로교 여성(PW)들의 중요성에 대해 기도하는 마음으로 생각해 주시기 바랍니다. 베풀고, 참여하고, 다른 사람들을 초대하십시오. 장로교 여성들에 대한 귀하의 지원은 소중합니다. PW의 연차 기금인 Mission Pledge에 대한 귀하의 선물은 PW가 앞으로 30년 동안 계속해서 “모든 사람의 이익을 위해 일”할 것임을 보장합니다.

Queridas Hermanas en Cristo,

Quizás usted sea agricultora, botánica u horticultora, o pasó los veranos de su juventud en la finca de su abuela. De ser así, usted sin duda tiene historias sobre la milagrosa transformación de la aridez en crecimiento. Plantar la semilla adecuada en el momento justo y en un terreno preparado es el primer paso para asegurarse de que su visión—en este caso, un acre de trigo, soya o maíz—pueda lograrse. Sin un plan y cuidado esmerado un campo produciría una mezcla de cualquier planta que se arraigue, con maleza y comestibles por igual.

Como Mujeres Presbiterianas—agricultoras, horticultoras y aficionadas a las plantas domésticas por igual—nosotras intuitivamente entendemos la importancia de planear, plantar, cuidar y cosechar cuidadosa y consistentemente cada ministerio y proyecto que estamos llamadas a realizar. ¡Eso incluye, desde luego, nuestro ministerio con MP! En el 2018 celebramos 30 años juntas como Mujeres Presbiterianas. Volvamos la mirada hacia la cosecha con corazones rebosantes y manos ocupadas al trabajar (y jugar) juntas para apoyar nuestro ministerio con MP, ahora y en el futuro. Nuestro cuidado esmerado, intencional, infatigable y devoto del ministerio de MP producirá un mundo como el que se vislumbra en el Propósito de MP.

Les pido que reflexionen en oración sobre la importancia de Mujeres Presbiterianas—en sus vidas y en el mundo. Por favor, donen, participen e inviten a otras personas a hacer lo mismo. Su apoyo a Mujeres Presbiterianas es importante. Sus donativos a la Promesa de Misión, que es el fondo anual de MP, garantizan que MP continuará “haciendo el bien a todos y todas” por otros 30 años.

Solicito que en oración reflexionen sobre la importancia de Mujeres Presbiterianas—en su vida y en el mundo. Por favor, aporten, participen adecuadamente e inviten a otras a hacer lo mismo. Respalden los ministerios de MP. Sus donativos a La Promesa de Misión asegurarán la continuidad del vibrante testimonio y los ministerios de Mujeres Presbiterianas.

What Does the Mission Pledge Do?

The Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund, supports every mission and ministry of PW at every level of the PC(USA)—no exceptions. Here are examples of what was made possible in 2016 and 2017 because of your generosity:

Global Exchange

PW of San José, children's literacy

Fellowship of the Least Coin

USA Mission Experience

- PW groups at all levels—congregation, presbytery, synod and churchwide—through programming, publishing and related staff support
- Participation in events that develop and enhance PW leadership, including presbytery and synod events
- Continued mission partnerships with our sisters living in regions previously visited by the USA Mission Experience and Global Exchange locations, and nurture of new partnerships brought about by these programs in San Francisco's Bay Area and Indonesia
- Involvement in mission projects, like Knitting4Peace, which directs the prayers and handmade items of people who are knitting, crocheting, weaving or quilting to areas of the world in need of prayers and where the dolls, hats, blankets and many other items will brighten lives
- Peace and justice initiatives and advocacy efforts, such as promoting children's literacy in connection with the PC(USA)'s Educate a Child initiative
- Solidarity through ecumenical movements, including World Day of Prayer, Fellowship of the Least Coin and Church Women United
- Presence at General Assembly, Big Tent and other PC(USA) churchwide events
- Regular meetings of an intentionally diverse and representative Churchwide Coordinating Team/board. This group—with representatives from each synod and the major racial ethnic groups in the church, as well as new immigrant women and young women—collectively discerns the goals and work of the organization.
- The award-winning publishing ministry of PW, including partial support for Horizons magazine (both print and digital formats), the PW/Horizons Bible study and other materials
- Continued management of PW, an effective national nonprofit with worldwide mission and ministry reach. Your gifts allow payment for necessary common operating expenses such as rent, utilities, insurance, staffing and office supplies.
- PW support of PC(USA) mission and partnerships

Where Do Our Mission Pledge Dollars Go?

This is the most common question about the Mission Pledge. And the answer is, that as PW's annual fund, the Mission Pledge supports every PW mission and ministry.

Mission Pledge gifts help fund the creation and nurturing of mission partnerships; justice and peace advocacy and other actions; engagement in ecumenical movements; new directions in leadership enhancement and training; the production of Bible studies to nurture your faith, and magazines to broaden your awareness; support of your PC(USA) denomination; and much more. Your Mission Pledge gift also supports common operating expenses for PW—from rent and staff to insurance and the Churchwide Coordinating Team/board. Giving to the Mission Pledge means carrying PW's witness and care around the world.

About This Packet and the Mission Pledge

In Celebration envelopes now available

During times of the celebration of life, make available In Celebration envelopes. These envelopes—available in packs of 10—provide an easy and thoughtful way for loved ones to direct their gifts to PW in honor or memory of a beloved Presbyterian woman. PWR17202, free.

Order from Presbyterian Distribution Service by calling toll-free 800/524-2612 or visiting www.pcusa.org/store.

What's included in this packet?

There are several pieces enclosed to help you promote and receive gifts toward the Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund:

- ✓ Introductory letter from Carol Winkler, 2015–2018 moderator of PW's Churchwide Coordinating Team
- ✓ Mission Pledge interpretive materials
- ✓ Pledge forms for PW in the Congregation and PW in the Presbytery
- ✓ Pledge card template

Please use this packet and enclosed materials in the fall of 2017 for financial commitments to the 2018 PW Mission Pledge. Feel free to photocopy any of the materials, or download them from www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge.

Who receives Mission Pledge packets?

Every PC(USA) congregation receives a 2018 Mission Pledge packet (addressed to "PW/Women's Group"), as do members of the Churchwide Coordinating Team, Celebration Giving representatives, and moderators, co-moderators and treasurers of Presbyterian Women in the Synod and Presbytery.

If you know of someone who should have received a packet and did not, you can request one by calling Presbyterian Distribution Service (PDS) at 800/524-2612 and asking for item PWR17011, or download the packet from www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge. Please also contact Patricia Longfellow, patricia.longfellow@pcusa.org or 844/797-2872, ext. 8015, to ensure that the PW database contains that person's contact information.

Who should promote giving to the PW Mission Pledge?

Everyone should promote giving to PW! With that said, in many cases a designated leader organizes and promotes PW giving. PW in the Congregations (PWC) use a variety of campaign models—in some, the PWC moderator is responsible for the Mission Pledge; in others, the PWC treasurer or a circle member takes the lead role. Some congregations also have a Celebration Giving representative (CGR) who promotes the Mission Pledge and all parts of the PW Celebration Giving program. PW encourages groups, congregations, presbyteries and synods to use the model that works for them.

Leaders in PW in the Presbytery and Synod (PWP and PWS), please work within your coordinating teams (CT) to help PWC and PWP leaders and contacts complete the appropriate pledge form (see pages 7–8). And if you know of Presbyterian Women who do not currently have a circle, please encourage them to give as individuals and to remain active in the presbytery and synod.

Why should I encourage giving to the PW Mission Pledge?

The simple answer: because nearly every mission and ministry program of PW is supported (in full or in part) through gifts to the Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund. Leadership enhancement and training, mission partnerships, publishing efforts, justice and peace advocacy and much more are all possible because of the Mission Pledge. Mission Pledge gifts also support your denomination, PC(USA) world mission, and PW's common operating expenses, such as rent, utilities and information technology support. You can find more detailed examples and statistics on how your Mission Pledge dollars are put to work on pages 2 and 3 of this packet.

This packet includes material for PW at the congregation, presbytery and synod levels. Individuals who are so moved can give to PW at any time, within and outside the circle, by giving online, mailing a check, and planning an estate gift or bequest. For more information, visit www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge, or contact Rhonda Martin, rhonda.martin@pcusa.org, or 844/797-2872, ext. 5596.

Encouraging Support of the Mission Pledge

Commitments to Presbyterian Women's Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund, traditionally are made through PW in the Congregation during a fall PW circle meeting, gathering or event, and/or a fall worship service; pledges are honored and gifts are received throughout the following year. For this campaign, pledges are made in 2017 and gifts are received in 2018.

Leaders' roles

All PW leaders have important roles in promoting giving to the Mission Pledge, PW's annual fund. Not all groups have the same leadership positions or giving patterns. Carry out the Mission Pledge campaign in a way that works for your congregation, presbytery and synod.

CAMPAIGN TIMELINE AND CHECKLISTS

Early Fall 2017

PW in the Synod (PWS) moderator

- ✓ Offer support to PW leaders responsible for pledges/gifts.

PW in the Presbytery (PWP) moderator

- ✓ Write a personal letter (to share with each congregation in the presbytery) that includes
 - ✦ a story about what the Mission Pledge means to you and to PW in the Congregations in your presbytery and
 - ✦ an invitation to prayerfully consider personal pledges/gifts to the Mission Pledge.
- ✓ Offer support to PW leaders responsible for pledges/gifts.

Fall 2017

PW in the Congregation (PWC) or circle leader

- ✓ Receive or request
 - ✦ a Mission Pledge packet
 - ✦ a pledge card template (see inside back cover)
 - ✦ the pledge form for PW in the Congregation (page 7)
 - These three items also are available at www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge.

- ✦ PWP moderator cover letter
- ✓ Choose and share your PW Mission Pledge impact story, noting that the Mission Pledge supports every PW mission and ministry program (including common operations) and the PC(USA).
 - See pages 2–3 for statistics and examples.
- ✓ At a preselected worship service, congregation or PW event,
 - ✦ give each person an envelope with a pledge card inside (#10 envelopes work well);
 - ✦ ask each person to write her/his name on the outside of the envelope, prayerfully decide how much to give to the PW Mission Pledge in 2018, write the pledge amount on the card and return it in the envelope provided; and
 - ✦ receive all completed pledge cards.
- ✓ Add pledge amounts and report the total on the Mission Pledge form for PW in the Congregation (page 7).
- ✓ Send the completed form to the Presbyterian Women in the Presbytery (PWP) moderator or Celebration Giving representative by November 15, 2017.

Celebration Giving representatives or PW in the Presbytery leaders

- ✓ Ensure that all PW in the Congregation groups have made pledges.
- ✓ Record the pledge total on the form for PW in the Presbytery (see page 8) and attach a list of the PWCs that are pledging.
- ✓ Keep the original and send copies by December 1, 2017, to the
 - ✦ treasurer of PW in the Presbytery,
 - ✦ moderator of PW in the Synod, and
 - ✦ PW Business Office, 100 Witherspoon St., Louisville, KY 40202-1396.
- ✓ Write a personal thank-you letter to each PW in the Congregation that pledges support for the 2018 PW Mission Pledge.

The Mission Pledge makes possible amazing things at the local level—mission, ministry, advocacy, community-building and leadership development, to name a few. Won't you share your stories about what the annual fund seeds in your congregation or presbytery? Email your story to sharon.gillies@pcusa.org so it can be shared more widely.

let us work for the good of all

Receiving the Mission Pledge

2018

PWC member(s) responsible for pledges/gifts

- ✓ Distribute envelopes once a month, or according to the congregation's giving pattern, at circle meetings or selected events, or give each person 12 envelopes in January for use throughout 2018.
 - ✦ Consider ordering more of the small envelopes for group giving (see image, top right).
- ✓ Ask circle/congregation members to give toward their pledge amount for the year.
- ✓ Record the amount given each month on each person's pledge card.
- ✓ Give the money received at each meeting, worship service or event to the PWC treasurer or person responsible for pledges/gifts.
- ✓ Send quarterly gifts from the congregation* with all other quarterly gifts to the PWP treasurer by March 10, June 10, September 10 and December 10, 2018.
 - ✦ Remittance forms are available at www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge.
 - ✦ Treasurers also receive these forms from Rhonda Martin, PW Business Office, 844/797-2872, ext. 5596, or rhonda.martin@pcusa.org.

MISSION PLEDGE CARDS

Mission Pledge cards are an easy way for PW in the Congregations to make and keep track of pledges. Instructions for receiving the Mission Pledge using pledge cards are on page 5 (under "Fall 2017, PWC or circle leader"), and the pledge card template is on the inside back cover or www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge.

MISSION PLEDGE GIVING ENVELOPES

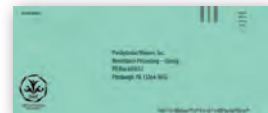

PW in the Congregation groups may find it helpful to use preprinted envelopes to receive Mission Pledge gifts. For your convenience, we've provided an image of two different envelopes: the smaller one can be used to receive gifts within a PW group, the larger envelope can be used for individual gifts made outside of a group, over and above circle gifts, or by credit card.

Envelope for giving through the PW in the Congregation

Circle and/or congregation members can use the small, group giving envelope to honor gifts toward their group's pledge. See this page (under "2018, PWC member(s) responsible for pledges/gifts") for instructions on using group giving envelopes. Group giving envelopes can be ordered from PDS by calling 800/524-2612; ask for item PWR10103; $1/pack of 50, plus shipping.

Envelope for giving outside the PW group

The large individual giving envelope is ideal for individuals who

- ✦ do not participate in a PW circle,
- ✦ attend a church without an active PW group,
- ✦ would like a tax receipt for their gift,
- ✦ want to give via credit card, or
- ✦ wish to make an additional gift over and above their group pledge.

Please make these individual giving envelopes available at congregation, presbytery and synod meetings and gatherings, as well as at special events as appropriate. The envelopes can also be found in the PW/Horizons Bible study and in each issue of Horizons magazine. Order individual giving envelopes in packs of 10 from PDS by calling 800/524-2612; item PWR16456; free.

Gifts made by credit card can be made online at www.presbyterianwomen.org/missionpledge. Individuals can give to the Mission Pledge at any time by sending a check made payable to Presbyterian Women, with "Mission Pledge" and the name of their presbytery in the memo line, to

Presbyterian Women Remittance Processing
PO Box 643652
Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3652

Please note that presbyteries and synods will be credited for all individual gifts.

Tax receipts are available for PWC or PWP group gifts only. Individuals who would like tax receipts for their gifts should follow the instructions on this page under "Giving outside the PW group." Contact Patricia Longfellow, 844/797-2872, ext. 8015, or patricia.longfellow@pcusa.org, for more information.
