

PW Puzzler

Sweet Snacks Puzzle

Sweet treats often have a starring role in sending love and care to those who need both love and care. We send care packages filled with goodies to those we miss—college students and military personnel, for example—and provide goodies for those who are nearby. During this Christmas season, as we ponder the miracle of the most amazing gift of all, take a few minutes and have a bit of fun completing this month's sweet treat puzzler! Ready to name that treat? Ready-set-go!

This silky-smooth chocolate candy shares a name with a very prominent biblical bird. _____

Moviegoers appreciate this addictive treat (that doubles as a great garland!) _____

These two chocolate candies are out of this world! _____

Share this candy during your church's next stewardship conversation. _____

DON'T share this candy during your church's stewardship conversation. _____

Fair trade chocolates (and coffee) are available from this company (and you will probably enjoy them at your church's fellowship hour). _____

This cookie treat can be made into a house! _____

A famous baseball player of yore (and an amazing chocolate bar)! _____

Two chocolate candy bars inspired by the number five. _____

This retro square-shaped gum is available in cute rectangular boxes. _____

An anise-flavored treat. _____

A classic, milky holiday beverage. _____

Red-and-white Christmas tree staples (and minty too). _____

This is the starring ingredient in arroz con dulce. _____

An old-fashioned cake with citron. _____

These fruits are stocking stuffer ready! _____

This candy is available with collectible dispensers. _____

These bears are fruity and stretchy! _____

PW Puzzler

Sweet Snacks Puzzle

Sweet treats often have a starring role in sending love and care to those who need both love and care. We send care packages filled with goodies to those we miss—college students and military personnel, for example—and provide goodies for those who are nearby. During this Christmas season, as we ponder the miracle of the most amazing gift of all, take a few minutes and have a bit of fun completing this month’s sweet treat puzzler! Ready to name that treat? Ready-set-go!

This silky-smooth chocolate candy shares a name with a very prominent biblical bird. Dove

Moviegoers appreciate this addictive treat (that doubles as a great garland!) Popcorn

These two chocolate candies are out of this world! Milky Way and Mars

Share this candy during your church’s next stewardship conversation. Zero

DON’T share this candy during your church’s stewardship conversation. 100 Grand, Payday

Fair trade chocolates (and coffee) are available from this company (and you will probably enjoy them at your church’s fellowship hour). Equal Exchange

This cookie treat can be made into a house! Gingerbread

A famous baseball player of yore (and an amazing chocolate bar)! Babe Ruth

Two chocolate candy bars inspired by the number five. Fifth Avenue and Take 5

This retro square-shaped gum is available in cute rectangular boxes. Chiclets

An anise-flavored treat. licorice or Good and Plenty

A classic, milky holiday beverage. Eggnog

Red-and-white Christmas tree staples (and minty too). Candy canes

This is the starring ingredient in arroz con dulce. Rice

An old-fashioned cake with citron. Fruitcake

These fruits are stocking stuffer ready! Oranges and apples

This candy is available with collectible dispensers. Pez

These bears are fruity and stretchy! Gummy bears