Cultivating Presbyterian Women

About This Packet

This booklet provides PW leaders with interpretative tools to encourage financial support of the annual fund. A thriving Presbyterian Women (at all levels of the church) requires careful cultivation, through financial support and participation in the organization in Holy-Spirit-led ways.

There are several components to help you encourage giving to PW's annual fund:

- Introductory letter from JyungIn Lee, PW's 2018–2021 churchwide moderator (p. 1)
- What the annual fund makes possible (pp. 2–3)
- Individuals' reasons for giving to the annual fund (p. 4)
- Annual fund timeline (pp. 5–6)
- Resources to promote giving (p. 6)
- Forms and pledge cards (pp. 7–IBC)

Every PC(USA) congregation will receive this booklet (addressed to "PW/Women's Group"). Additional copies are available from www.presbyterianwomen.org/shop or 800/533-4371 (item PWR19011).

Use this packet in the fall of 2019 for financial commitments to PW's 2020 annual fund.

About PW's Annual Fund, the Mission Pledge

PW's annual fund, the Mission Pledge, supports—in full or in part—just about every PW ministry, nationally and regionally. PW's grant programs—the Thank and Birthday Offerings—are undergirded by the annual fund, as are Horizons magazine and Bible studies, and local and national gatherings. PW's ecumenical partnerships with World Day of Prayer and Fellowship of the Least Coin are made possible because of financial support of PW through the annual fund. Turn to page 2 of this booklet to explore how PW blooms through careful cultivation. Safe Haven, a PW Thank Offering grant recipient, is profiled on page 3.

Presbyterian women faithfully support our denomination through tithing and support of regional and denominational programs. But gifts to the PC(USA) do not fund Presbyterian Women. Only financial gifts to Presbyterian Women's annual fund—given through a PW group or individual giving (including planned giving and endowments)—support Presbyterian Women. Presbyterian Women, in turn, supports the denomination through grassroots involvement, mission support and more.

Every participant in Presbyterian Women is encouraged to pledge her 2020 annual fund gift through her circle. Some Presbyterian Women choose to further support Presbyterian Women through giving over and above their circle gifts; these PW sustainers are an important and growing community of women who cultivate PW for today and tomorrow.

At every level of the organization, PW's annual fund brings to fruition the commitments made in the PW Purpose:

Forgiven and freed by God in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves

- to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study,
- to support the mission of the church worldwide,
- to work for justice and peace, and
- to build an inclusive, caring community of women that strengthens the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and witnesses to the promise of God's kingdom.

A Letter from Your 2018–2021 PW Churchwide Moderator

Dear PW sisters,

Can you imagine our faith, church and social life without Presbyterian Women? PW does so much: advocating for justice and peace, transforming lives all over the world through mission, building relationships through Together in Service, cultivating leaders, nurturing community through the Bible study, and—most of all—praying together. For many of us, PW's ministries have been so woven into our lives that we can't think of other ways of being a church lady. I know I can't!

I believe that PW is more relevant than ever, and so needed in this troubled day and age. The kind of work PW does must continue and thrive. We must lift up the prophetic voices among us to make this world a more just and merciful place to live for all of us.

I invite you to join me and many others in PW's ongoing work by contributing to Presbyterian Women. Your gift will allow PW's work to continue until the world is full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea. Peace and blessings to you all.

JyungIn Lee, PW Churchwide Moderator

사랑하는 한인 여성들께 인사드립니다!

PW를 사랑해 주시고 아껴 주시는 한인 여성들에게 감사드립니다.

여러분께서도 잘 아시다시피, PW는 오랜 역사를 통하여 세계 각국에 선교를 해 왔고 한국도 미국장로교 여성들의 정성 어린 헌금의 혜택을 받아왔습니다. 우리는 미국장로교 여성과 뗄 수 없는 역사 깊은 관계를 가지고 있습니다. 어느때 보라도 지금은, 우리 여성들이 더욱더 마음과 뜻과 정성을 모아 사회의 정의와 평화를 위하여 일하고, 미션을 통하여 관계를 형성하고 삶을 향상시키며, 후세들의 리더십 배양에 헌신을 할 때라고 믿습니다. 또한 성경공부를 통하여 공동체를 양육하고, 끊임없이 기도하며, 우리 스스로를 늘 개혁하는 자세를 가져야 할 때라고 생각합니다. 우리가 PW를 통하여 함께 사역을 하고 세상을 치유하기 위해서는 여러분의 후원과 도움이 절실히 필요합니다. 여러분이 PW에게 보내주시는 헌금은 PW의 목적에 부응하는 여러 사역에 세계적으로 쓰여 질 것입니다. 물이 바다를 채우듯, 주님을 아는 지식이 이 땅에 가득할 때까지 하나님 나라를 만들어 가는 사명에 우리 한인 여성들도 함께 동참해 주실 것을 간절히 부탁드립니다. 여러분의 삶에 주님이 주시는 풍성함과 평강이 충만하시기를 기원합니다. 감사합니다.

Queridas hermanas de PW,

¿Pueden ustedes imaginarse nuestra fe, nuestra iglesia y nuestra vida social sin Mujeres Presbiterianas (PW, por sus siglas en inglés)? PW hace tanto: abogar por la justicia y la paz, transformar vidas en todo el mundo por medio de la misión, entablar relaciones a través del programa Juntas en Servicio (Together in Service), cultivar líderes, fomentar la comunidad por medio del estudio bíblico, y—sobre todo—orar juntas. Para muchas de nosotras, los ministerios de PW han estado tan entrelazados con nuestras vidas que no podemos imaginarnos otra forma de ser una mujer de la iglesia. ¡Al menos yo no puedo!

Creo que PW es ahora más relevante que nunca antes, y que hace mucha falta en esta época perturbada. El tipo de trabajo que PW hace debe continuar y prosperar. Debemos levantar las voces proféticas en medio nuestro para hacer que este mundo sea un lugar más justo y misericordioso en el que todas y todas podamos vivir.

Las invito a unirse a mí y a muchas otras mujeres en la labor en curso de PW al contribuir a Mujeres Presbiterianas. Su donativo permitirá que el trabajo de PW continúe hasta que el mundo se llene “del conocimiento del Señor, como las aguas cubren el mar” (Is. 11:9). Paz y bendiciones para todas ustedes.

PW's Annual Fund at Work: 2018 Year in Review

More than 1,600 women attended PW's 2018 Churchwide Gathering in Louisville; thousands more joined in spirit!

Together in Service for Puerto Rico took root, allowing PWs everywhere to support Puerto Rico's recovery work financially and with pillowcases for the children.

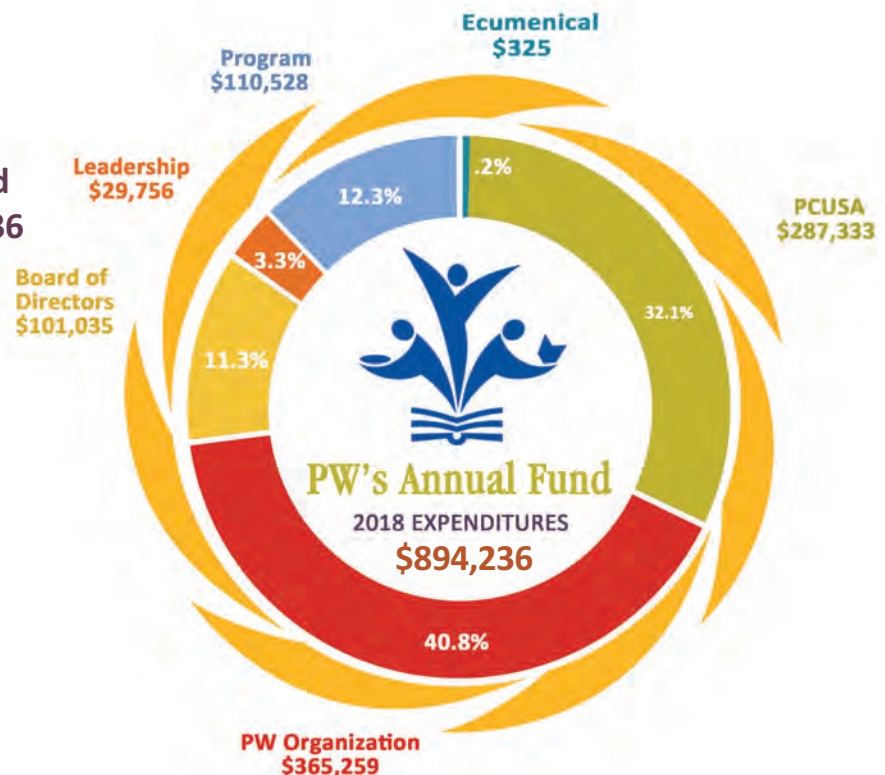

Let's continue the "Cultivate PW" conversation! What does PW mean to you? Why do you give to PW? Share your answers by emailing them to sharon.gillies@pcusa.org or posting on Facebook or Twitter with the hashtag #WhyIGivePW.

2018 Annual Fund Revenue: $894,236

The seeds we cast locally are germinated nationally. In other words, information and programming move in all directions throughout the organization. Local and regional work impacts national work, and vice versa!

PW supports mission through several giving streams. The largest—PW's annual fund (the Mission Pledge)—makes PW possible at every level, and ensures that the other streams have shape and depth consistent with PW's Purpose. Gifts to the annual fund, along with other sources of revenue, make possible PW's grants, leadership development, resource and program development, and support of the mission of the church worldwide.

- We celebrated 30 years of Presbyterian Women and started plans for our next 30 years!
- Presbyterian Women elected our first Korean American churchwide moderator, JyungIn Lee!
- PW gained official status at the United Nations, thus strengthening our global witness.
- Through our Offerings, PW awarded nearly $1 million in grants for mission and ministry (five international and sixteen domestic ministries)!
- Almost 800 individuals were recognized with Honorary Life Memberships!
- PW gained representation on the new PC(USA), A Corporation, board.
- Forty-seven PWs rolled up their sleeves and became Presbyterian Disaster Assistance trainers.

A Case for Support: Taking Root

Every dollar given to the annual fund, whether dropped in a basket or given online, matters to Presbyterian Women's many ministries. Even programs that bring in additional funds (like Horizons magazine and Bible study or the Thank and Birthday Offerings) could not function without the infrastructure that the annual fund provides. For an example of what the annual fund makes possible, consider Sea Island Presbyterian Church in Beaufort, South Carolina.

Inspired by the PW/Horizons Bible study Come to the Waters, which shared a suggestion to look within a mile of the church for mission needs, Sea Island envisioned a new outreach called Safe Haven. If they could secure funding, this new ministry would offer tutoring to neighborhood children, and shower and laundry facilities to people who are experiencing homelessness. The Thank Offering grant they received in 2018 made that life-changing ministry possible.

Safe Haven at Sea Island

During extreme weather, Sea Island Presbyterian Church has been the only location in Beaufort County to offer housing to people who are homeless. Cots and a warm place to rest were all that could be offered. The church wanted to do more, especially considering that they host homeless families who are clients of Family Promise, a local shelter. Sea Island hosts the families for a week at a time on a quarterly basis. A Thank Offering grant helped fund construction of an expanded "safe haven" with two showers, a laundry area and a tutoring program. The staff hope that feeling safe and welcome will bring the families back for the tutoring services. Safe Haven's tutoring program offers academic support to children of single parents and those being raised by grandparents. Monday through Thursday, 3–6 PM, volunteers (who include many current or retired teachers!) tutor children who are in kindergarten through eighth grade. While the students receive support, so do parents and grandparents. They enjoy tea with other caregivers; they talk with volunteers about school expectations and how to best support children; they rest, shower and do laundry.

Update!

Safe Haven's director Kay Keeler says, "We are happy to report that we will start our second year of tutoring in September 2019. We will have 25 students from two local schools participating in our after-school tutoring program. This past year, we had 40 volunteers (who include many current or retired teachers!). More volunteers from a nearby Lutheran church will help in the fall. We currently have a waiting list for new students and have been contacted by several congregations—local and outside of South Carolina—who are interested in the possibility of implementing a similar program in their own churches. Please know that we remain grateful for this most generous grant provided by Presbyterian Women."

Students who come to Safe Haven for tutoring also have time to explore the arts.

More than 40 volunteers lend their teaching expertise or offer support to children and caregivers.

Reading with tutors has cultivated a love of books for many Safe Haven students.

Why Give to PW's Annual Fund?

In Celebration envelopes now available

During times of celebration and the celebration of life, make available In Celebration envelopes. These envelopes provide an easy way for loved ones to direct their gifts to PW in honor or memory of a beloved Presbyterian woman. PWR19202, free.

To order, go to www.presbyterianwomen.org/shop or call 800/533-4371.

Reasons for giving to Presbyterian Women are as varied as PW's programs and as unique as PW's participants.

I give to the PW annual fund because it is an investment in myself. I give to PW's annual fund because I want to be Jesus' "good soil . . . yield[ing] a hundredfold." I am good soil who—because of PW programming and staff—has gone from growing only succulents to nourishing tasty fruit, healing herbs and beautiful flowers.

Don't get me wrong; succulents are beautiful and I love them, too, but our Triune God created a diverse world and I want to be part of a garden that grows and reflects that kind of beauty and abundant diversity. The many rich PW programs empower me to be a stronger and more faithful follower of Jesus, who also walks the walk, not just talks the talk and is helping others by growing a greener, kinder world.

—Anita Coleman
2016–2019 PW Board Member
Irvine, California

I started participating in PW because my mother and other women in my congregation kept asking me to join them. I really thought I was doing my mother and the others a favor when I finally decided to get involved. Little did

I know how much fulfillment, joy, inspiration and enrichment I would experience as PW became an integral part of my life. It continues to be so some 40 years later.

Over the years, Presbyterian Women has provided for me all of the following:

- An opportunity to be in fellowship with women around the world
- An opportunity to serve and grow
- An opportunity to learn and grow
- An opportunity for leadership
- An opportunity to meet and experience the diversity of God's people
- An opportunity to celebrate the gifts of God's people
- A journey of a lifetime, a joy of a lifetime

I give to PW because PW has given so much to me over the years.

—Catrelia Hunter
2006–2009 PW Churchwide Moderator
Cleveland, North Carolina

I give so that other women can have the opportunities I have had to serve PW in so many ways. I give in remembrance and gratitude to the women who mentored me across all levels of PW. I give so that other women will have a voice.

Timeline for Encouraging Support of PW's Annual Fund

Commitments to Presbyterian Women's annual fund (the Mission Pledge) traditionally are made through PW in the Congregation during a fall PW circle meeting, gathering or event, and/or a fall worship service; pledges are honored and gifts are received throughout the following year. For this campaign, pledges are made in 2019 and gifts are received in 2020.

Leaders' roles

All PW leaders have important roles in promoting giving to PW's annual fund. Not all groups have the same leadership positions or giving patterns. Carry out the annual fund campaign in a way that works for your congregation, presbytery and synod.
