

We PRAY.

We thank God for God's steadfast love, and we ask God for healing and direction:

Holy One, it is hard to ask for help, but we know you are with us. Thank you for your presence and the hope you provide for such a time as this. Amen.

(Heb. 13:5)

I will never leave you,
or forsake you.

❖ ❖ ❖

(Ps. 34:18)

The LORD is nearer to the brokenhearted and saves
the crushed in spirit.

❖ ❖ ❖

(Rom. 8:39)

... be able to separate us
from the love of God.
Any dying else in all creation will ... neither death nor life ... nor

❖

for HOPE

We look to the Word

We ACT.

We work to fix systems that contribute to humanitarian and natural disasters.

We learn about issues.
We vote and run for office.
We advocate for justice.
We hold courageous conversations. We seek solutions together.

for those lost and injured;
we grieve for humankind
and our world. We open our arms to those who are suffering, as we seek healing
for ourselves and others.

We GRIEVE

the pain of those suffering the impact of a tragedy, disaster,
violence or internal crisis.
We respond lovingly.
We acknowledge nonverbal cues.
We are present in silence.
We listen attentively.
the cries of those in pain.

We ACKNOWLEDGE

For nothing will be impossible with GOD.

—Luke 1:37

In times of disaster . . .
earthquakes and floods,
fires and storms, suicides
and overdose, racial violence
and hate, shootings and family violence, rape and human trafficking, illness and death,
poverty and oppression . . .
we seek understanding, we give comfort, we extend aid, we work for healing, we seek peace in the confidence of God's grace.

Find links to resources at www.presbyterianwomen.org/justice.

Download this item at www.presbyterianwomen.org/justice or order PWR19205 from www.presbyterianwomen.org/shop.

God calls us to RESPOND!
In times of natural
or humanmade crises . . .

Prayer & Beyond

Faithful Response
in Times of Trouble

Presbyterian Women in the PC(USA)
www.presbyterianwomen.org/justice