Let Justice Roll Down: God's Call to Care for Neighbors and All Creation

By Patricia K. Tull

With Suggestions for Leaders by Rebecca Barnes

Patricia Tull, author of the 2024—2025 PW/Horizons Bible study Let Justice Roll Down: God's Call to Care for Neighbors and All Creation, describes her call for creation justice in this way: "When I first learned of the climate crisis, I wondered how a biblical scholar with few practical skills could help and found my purpose in learning about ecology and teaching people of faith what I could. Such is not everyone's skillset or desire, but each of us has something to do with all our hearts."

We invite you to join Presbyterian Women as we explore, with all our hearts, God's call to care for our neighbors and for creation. Readers will learn about ecological systems, the challenges we face in this time of accelerated climate change, and the possibilities available to address or counter the impact of human-made stress on our environment. Further, readers will explore theological questions that point us to act and engage, in small and large ways.

About the author

Rev. Dr. Patricia K. Tull is A. B. Rhodes Professor Emerita of Hebrew Bible at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

Sacred Encounters: The Power and Presence of Jesus Christ in Luke-Acts

By Olive Mahabir

The 2023–2024 PW/Horizons Bible study by author Olive Mahabir invites readers to consider Jesus, “the good shepherd” (Luke 10:15), who shared the Good News through sacred encounters with everyday people.

The Gospel According to Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, or Luke-Acts “one story in two parts,” demonstrate the unfolding of God’s redemptive purposes in human history and present a distinctive perspective on the person and work of Jesus Christ. Written by Luke, a physician and traveling companion of Paul, the message to the early Christian community (and to us) is radical, inclusive, and hope-filled.

Further, this message invites the church to deeper, compassionate engagement with the world. “What are the potential implications for the church if we treat our interactions as sacred encounters that demonstrate the transformative love of Christ Jesus?” (from the introduction)

Celebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight

By Carol M. Bechtel

In the nine lessons of this Bible study—with passages from Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Matthew, Luke, and Acts—we’ll consider Sabbath

- as a celebration, not a day of dreary formality
- as God’s intent for all of creation that includes busy women too
- as one day of the week, perhaps a Sunday
- as a time to surrender unhealthy striving and frantic busyness, and instead trust that God will provide
- as a reminder that life is precious and working too much is against God’s plans for our precious lives
- as a day devoted to community and justice and not exclusively to self-care

Ultimately, Sabbath reminds us to honor God who honors us by giving us a day each week to reset our pace, our priorities, and our lives.

What My Grandmothers Taught Me: Learning from the Women in Matthew's Genealogy of Jesus

By Merryl Blair

Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, Bathsheba, and Mary—Matthew names these women for a reason. How might Jesus have heard the stories of his grandmothers? What might the young Jesus have felt, as he heard about his family? What might the stories of these women have added to his sense of identity, as part of a particular family in a particular time and place?

Have you thought about Jesus' grandmothers? What can these Grandmothers-of-the-Faith teach us? Their stories will lead us into the gospel, the Good News about Jesus Christ. By exploring these stories together, we will have a richer idea of what the good news is.

Into the Light: Finding Hope Through Prayers of Lament

By P. Lynn Miller, author and artist

Lament is a proper theological response to the difficult situations of our world. One of the foundational points of the study is that, in scripture, lament usually leads to hope. Hope implies movement: both God's inherent movement toward justice and our movement toward God. Recovering lament may be one of the church's mostly timely gifts to the world.

Reconciling Paul: A Contemporary Study of 2 Corinthians

By Elizabeth Hinson-Hasty

Paul, like us, wrestled with and questioned his faith as he tried to live as authentically as possible in a world that was in the midst of great change. What can we learn from revisiting 2 Corinthians and considering Paul’s theology and ideas as they relate to the context of our time?

Love Carved in Stone: A Fresh Look at the Ten Commandments

By Eugenia Anne Gamble

What would it mean to consider the Ten Commandments not as a harsh list of what not to do but, instead, as a letter from a loving God? A fresh embrace of the Ten Commandments (or Words), author Eugenia Gamble suggests, may ultimately contribute to the restoration of ourselves and our communities and the furthering of the gospel in the world.

Joshua: A Journey of Faith

By Mary Mikhael

Mary Mikhael invites us to explore the challenging, sometimes heartrending book of Joshua. Pursuing such themes as leadership, the promise of land, the concept of holy war and outsiders becoming insiders, we learn ultimately to find rest in the justice and mercy of God. Bonus material by Eugene March places Joshua in context.

An Abiding Hope: The Presence of God in Exodus and Deuteronomy By Janice Catron

Our God is one who redeems—who brings liberty and fulfillment—even when we cannot redeem ourselves. The instructions in Exodus and Deuteronomy for life as a covenant community were extended to people who were on the move. They challenge us to consider our responsibility toward migrants near and far.

Confessing the Beatitudes By Margaret Aymer

Let us consider the Beatitudes as they might have been heard when Jesus spoke them—during the time of the Roman Empire. While great in many respects, Rome was a cruel regime under which many suffered. We are invited to identify with those who are poor and oppressed and, at the end of each lesson, to enter into a process of confession.

Above and Beyond: Hearing God's Call in Jonah and Ruth

By Carol Bechtel

What does it mean to hear God's call? Old Testament scholar Carol Bechtel looks at what God's call meant for Jonah and Ruth. Not just a "fish tale" or a "Cinderella story," these biblical books, says Bechtel, offer us insight into what it means for each of us to hear and heed God's call. No matter where you are on your life's journey, this study will challenge you to ask, "What am I called to say? What am I called to do? Who am I called to be?"
