SPRING 2022 EDITION

Board Summary, February 2022

Presbyterian Women Inc.'s Board returned to Zoom on February 24 and 25 for their second meeting of the 2021–2024 triennium. Moderator Kathy Reeves and Vice Moderator Kathleen Keefer facilitated the meeting, which was held for six hours over two days. During this time, the national Board reconnected with each other, heard presentations, welcomed leaders speaking to PW and denominational programs, voted several actions and thanked Board members completing their term with this meeting.

Representatives from Presbyterian Women's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Advisory Group joined the meeting. To support PW's commitment to antiracism, this group will provide focused attention on short- and long-term strategies that impact structural racism, including education/training, culture, policy, procedure, participation and leader recruitment. Chair of PW's 2024 Churchwide Gathering Jeanette Huie also joined the meeting on February 25 to talk about the event and receive input on the Gathering theme and scripture.

Hunter Farrell and Balajiedlang Khyllap, authors of Freeing Congregational Mission: A Practical Vision for Companionship, Cultural Humility and Co-Development (Downers Grove, IL: InterVarsity, 2022) presented ideas from their book. In a combination of stories and images, the coauthors led conversations about goals and realities of mission work, as well as how to approach and represent mission in a spirit of true partnership.

Kathleen Keefer delivered the second presentation, "Stopping Violence Against Women and Children." In keeping with the Board's emphasis this triennium on how they can help end violence against women and children, the presentation focused on actionable ways PW can promote support and healing for those who experience violence, as well as to promote programs that help create safe relationships.

In addition to approving minutes from the September 2021 Board meeting and approving the Personnel Committee's revisions to PW Inc.'s Personnel Handbook, Presbyterian Women's national Board acted on recommendations from a number of national committees.

Adopting the Cross-Agency Antiracism Policy

PW, Inc.'s Board adopted this antiracism policy that was created by the Diverse Voices Table and the executives of each

Celebrating a Century of the PW Birthday Offering—$100 for 100

In 1922, Hallie Paxton Winsborough challenged each member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to give a penny for each year of her life as a "birthday gift" and the offering benefitted Miss Dowd's School for Girls in Japan and construction of the Montreat Gate in North Carolina. A century later, Presbyterian women have contributed more than $37 million to the Birthday Offering and helped improve lives at home and around the world.

While the world looks different now than it did when Hallie extended her call to give, deep needs and faithful responses remain. And thankfully, so do Presbyterian Women and Presbyterian Women's Birthday Offering.

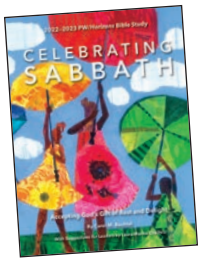

In celebration of God's gifts for our lives—the gift of community, the gift of care, the gift of Presbyterian Women—let's celebrate 100 years of Presbyterian Women's Birthday Offering! Consider responding with a modern twist to Hallie Paxton Winsborough's challenge by giving $100 for 100 years* to the Birthday Offering!

Make your gift at presbyterianwomen.org/give.

*$100 for 100 is an easy slogan to celebrate all that the Birthday Offering has made possible and will continue to make possible. The giving guidelines for PW offerings continue to be "give as you are able." Using 100 as a benchmark, consider giving a quarter for every year or even a dime or perhaps even $50. All gifts, no matter the amount, are gratefully received and lovingly shared. Every level of support for PW's many ministries matters to PW, your church and your world community.

Pass It On!

PWC, PWP and PWS newsletter editors, you are the heralds of PW communications! A Moving Study with Moving Art

Of the many response cards returned from the 2021–2022 PW/Horizons Bible study, Church-wide moderator Kathy Reeves randomly chose Georgia Hamilton's entry to receive the art piece inspired by Cody F. Miller's painting, Bathsheba. Lesson Six of the 2021–2022 PW/Horizons Bible study, What My Grandmothers Taught Me: Learning from the Women in Matthew's Genealogy of Jesus features Cody's painting. Georgia plans to display the piece in her home.

What My Grandmothers Taught Me: Learning from the Women in Matthew's Genealogy of Jesus by Merryl Blair provides a unique glimpse into the lives of women intimately connected with Jesus and his life and ministry. Although many PW groups are currently studying What My Grandmothers Taught Me, why not consider others you know in faithful discipleship who would benefit from this study as well?

Provide a copy (or two!) to your pastor, favorite Christian educator, or other student of scripture for sermon or church school possibilities. Help them encounter and lovingly consider the women who, although often mis- or under-represented in history, mattered to Jesus. The study is available in several editions (English, Spanish, large print, audio), and a rare sale on printed studies and select supplemental resources runs until May 18, 2022!

Growing the PW Community

Cultivating Presbyterian Women

2022 has dawned and God continues to call each of us, individually and as a community, to bring God's light to the world through Presbyterian Women. As we pray and plan, remember to tend PW's garden of ministries by supporting PW's Annual Fund (the Mission Pledge), as well as PW's Birthday and Thank Offerings, the PW/Horizons Bible study, and more.

How (Most) PW Ministry Funds Are Received

Circle Giving

Giving in our circles is the foundation of PW giving. Circle gifts nourish PW at the local level and trickle through the organization—from presbytery to synod to churchwide.

Direct to Churchwide Gifts

Gifts given directly to PW churchwide provide an increasingly significant source of stability.

How To Financially Support PW

Give in your circle by cash or check. Or give directly. Give securely by credit card at presbyterianwomen.org/give. And/or send your check made payable to Presbyterian Women (with "Annual Fund" or other PW ministry in the notes line of the check) to Presbyterian Women, Inc., PO Box 643652, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3652.

Other Ways To Support PW

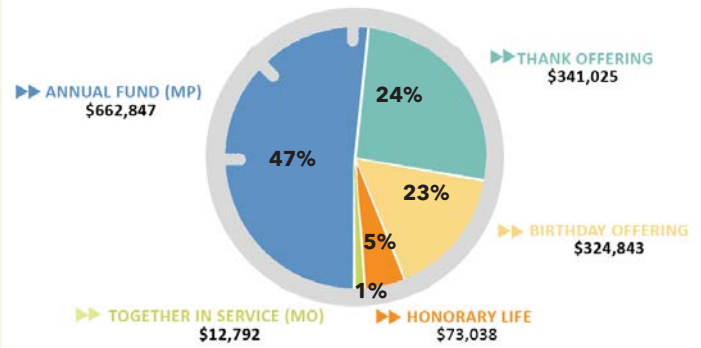

Support Presbyterian Women through gifts of stock, endowments or estate planning) by contacting the Presbyterian Foundation, client.services@presbyterianfoundation.org or 800/858-6127 ext. 3041.

How Do You Support PW?

A pledge is a promise. Your pledge of participation in and support of our organization's many ministries enable Presbyterian Women to live fully into our PW Purpose!

As we emerge from a pandemic and turn our attention and care to all that "is good and acceptable" (Rom. 12:2), use this checklist or adapt it in a way that fits your group so that everyone's participation and financial support of PW is top of mind!

Presbyterian Women's Giving Jan. 1–Dec. 31, 2021

Thank you for your faithful giving, even during a tumultuous year! Your support matters to PW, to one another, to the church and the world!

Ideas to consider for your PW year:

- Give to the Birthday Offering, Thank Offering, PW Gives Day (July 31) and Year-end giving.
- Participate in PW Bible study, regional gatherings, Justice and Peace online book groups.
- Give in your circle, give online (presbyterianwomen.org/give), or send a check to Presbyterian Women, Inc., PO Box 643652, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3652.
- Order PW resources, including Bible studies and offering materials, by visiting presbyterianwomen.org/shop or call 866/802-3635.

Visit presbyterianwomen.org often and make sure you're signed up to receive PW emails. If you received notification of this NewsBytes from Presbyterian Women, Inc., you're already on the list! If not, email patricia.longfellow@pcusa.org with the subject line "email sign-up."

agency and entity of the PC(USA) in response to a recommendation from the 224th General Assembly (2020). More information will be available as other entities and agencies consider the policy.

Updating the Etchings in Diversity booklet

PW's original Etchings in Diversity booklet has served many groups since it was created in 1999. By approving the update of this resource by the Racial Equity Committee, and making it available both as a printed and downloadable item, the booklet will continue to build PW's inclusive, caring community.

Offering a USA Mission Experience in the southwestern United States

By the Board's approval, the fall 2023 USA Mission Experience will focus on immigration and refugee issues, violence against women and children throughout the immigration process, and current challenges for our indigenous women and children, all from within the context of the Southwest United States.

Promoting Child Abuse Prevention Month in April

PW's national Board approved the Justice and Peace Committee's resolution to develop a campaign to promote resources and organizations working to prevent and end abuse and neglect of children.

Kathy Reeves and Kathleen Keefer recognized Board members who will be completing their terms in July 2022—Young Women's Representatives Kate Duffert and Khayla Johnson; Synod Representatives Joanne Acarón, Molly McCarthy, Sue Mummert, Anne Schneider and Carole Wheeler; and PC(USA) Representative Kathy Maurer.

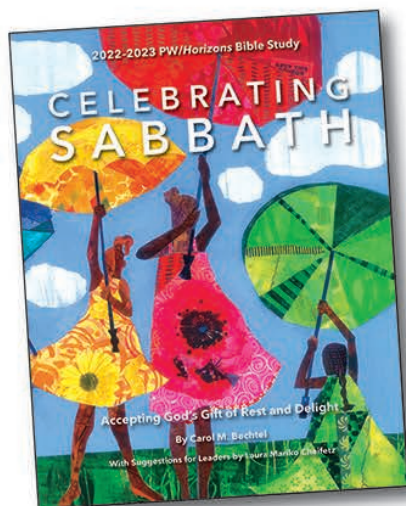

PW Inc.'s next Board meeting will be in Louisville, September 22–26, 2022.

Introducing the 2022-2023 PW/Horizons Bible study

Celebrating Sabbath

Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight
by Carol M. Bechtel

With Suggestions for Leaders by Laura Mariko Cheifetz

In the nine lessons of this Bible study—with passages from Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Matthew, Luke, and Acts—we'll consider Sabbath

- as a celebration, not a day of dreary formality
- as God's intent for all of creation and that includes busy women too
- as one day of the week, perhaps a Sunday
- as a time to surrender unhealthy striving and frantic busyness, and instead trust God will provide
- as a reminder that life is precious and working too much is against God's plans for our precious lives
- as a day devoted to community and justice and not exclusively to self-care

Ultimately, Sabbath reminds us to honor God who honors us by giving us a day each week to reset our pace, our priorities, and our lives.

About the Authors

Carol M. Bechtel, an ordained minister, is Professor of Old Testament at Western Theological Seminary in Holland, Michigan, where she has taught since 1994. Carol was the author of the delightful 2007–2008 PW/Horizons Bible study, Above and Beyond: Hearing God's Call in Jonah and Ruth, which is available to purchase from the PW Shop!

Laura Mariko Cheifetz is a queer biracial double-PK (preachers' kid) Presbyterian minister from the Pacific Northwest, now living and working in the southeast. She enjoys hiking, her rescue pups, and eating. She has worked in theological education, social justice advocacy, religious publishing, served on the PW Board, and published with Horizons magazine.

You're invited to celebrate . . . PW Gives Day—July 31

July 31 will be celebrated as PW Gives Day—a day to celebrate the many ways that Presbyterian Women give to witness to the promise of God's realm.

- Watch for (and share your!) stories about how, where and why PW gives on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
- Send your #PWGives story and photos to carissa.herold@pcusa.org.
- If you are not already on PW's email list, email pw_pcusa@pcusa.org to be added to the list and receive information about this day (and other PW programs)!
- Pray for PW as we bring the light of God's love to a world in need of care and hope.

How to Give

- Give online at presbyterianwomen.org/give. Then select PW Gives Day and your gift amount. Select a gift of $10 or more (and add a bit extra for a transaction fee). Please scroll and type PWGDAY22 in the comments box as well as your church and presbytery (or synod) information.
- Contact Carissa Herold by phone (844/PW-PCUSA, ext. 5322) or email carissa.herold@pcusa.org.
- Mail your gift to Presbyterian Women Inc., PO Box 643652, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3652. Please indicate annual fund and PWGDAY22 in the memo line of your check.
