

2023 Thank Offering

OF PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body.

And be thankful. —Colossians 3:14-15

About the Thank Offering

The Thank Offering began in 1888 when Eliza Clokey of Springfield, Ohio, urged each woman to give one dollar over and above her usual contribution to the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. In the 135 years since Eliza first asked women to give a "thank offering to her Lord," more than 1,600 different projects in the United States and around the world have benefitted from grants funded by faithful and generous givers.

Respond to Eliza's inspiring call to support mission initiatives and demonstrate thanksgiving for God's blessings through giving to the Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women.

For more information on the 2023 Thank Offering recipients, read the Summer issue of Horizons magazine or go to presbyterianwomen.org/thank.

* New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, copyright © 1989 by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. Used by permission.

Presbyterian Women in the PC(USA), Inc.
100 Witherspoon Street
Louisville, KY 40202
presbyterianwomen.org

2023 Thank Offering

OF PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body.

And be thankful. —Colossians 3:14-15

About the Thank Offering

The Thank Offering began in 1888 when Eliza Clokey of Springfield, Ohio, urged each woman to give one dollar over and above her usual contribution to the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. In the 135 years since Eliza first asked women to give a "thank offering to her Lord," more than 1,600 different projects in the United States and around the world have benefitted from grants funded by faithful and generous givers.

Respond to Eliza's inspiring call to support mission initiatives and demonstrate thanksgiving for God's blessings through giving to the Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women.

For more information on the 2023 Thank Offering recipients, read the Summer issue of Horizons magazine or go to presbyterianwomen.org/thank.

* New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, copyright © 1989 by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. Used by permission.

Presbyterian Women in the PC(USA), Inc.
100 Witherspoon Street
Louisville, KY 40202
presbyterianwomen.org

SYNOD OF THE SUN

Presbytery of South Louisiana
Okra Abbey New Worshipping Community
Solar Power for Resilience
$35,000

Okra Abbey is a new worshipping community in the Pigeon Town neighborhood of New Orleans, a low-income area that is often overlooked as many neighbors struggle with housing and food insecurity, addiction and mental health issues. This unconventional community has a garden for a sanctuary and gathers around meal tables rather than pews. Utilizing the garden space and the ability to grow vegetables, Okra Abbey extends the welcome of Jesus to those who might otherwise not be interested or feel welcomed into a church.

With the 2023 Thank Offering grant, Okra Abbey will become a solar powered space, resilient in the face of extreme storms and a hub for disaster response. With reliable solar energy, they will reach out to neighbors daily by offering electrical outlets and a charging station. The vegetables grown at Okra Abbey are a starting point for conversation, and with the Thank Offering grant, Okra Abbey will be consistent hosts for community growth and faith discovery.

Give to the Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women at presbyterianwomen.org/thank.

SYNOD OF THE SUN

Presbytery of South Louisiana
Okra Abbey New Worshipping Community
Solar Power for Resilience
$35,000

Okra Abbey is a new worshipping community in the Pigeon Town neighborhood of New Orleans, a low-income area that is often overlooked as many neighbors struggle with housing and food insecurity, addiction and mental health issues. This unconventional community has a garden for a sanctuary and gathers around meal tables rather than pews. Utilizing the garden space and the ability to grow vegetables, Okra Abbey extends the welcome of Jesus to those who might otherwise not be interested or feel welcomed into a church.

With the 2023 Thank Offering grant, Okra Abbey will become a solar powered space, resilient in the face of extreme storms and a hub for disaster response. With reliable solar energy, they will reach out to neighbors daily by offering electrical outlets and a charging station. The vegetables grown at Okra Abbey are a starting point for conversation, and with the Thank Offering grant, Okra Abbey will be consistent hosts for community growth and faith discovery.

Give to the Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women at presbyterianwomen.org/thank.

